

“Defendants”) failed to abide by the arbitrator selection and assignment provisions and procedure set forth in the attached arbitration agreement (Exhibit A).

Because Defendants’ failure to abide by and enforce the arbitration procedure as written will cause Pennel irreparable harm and injury, Pennel also respectfully requests that this Court enjoin the arbitration of his pending discipline, including all pre-hearing submissions and activities, pending this Court’s appointment of an arbitrator.

Pennel further pleads as follows:

FACTS

11. The NFLMC manages an association of 32 professional football franchises comprising the NFL.

12. The NFLMC negotiated a collective bargaining agreement and employment policies with the NFLPA governing the terms and conditions of Pennel's employment.

13. The NFLMC allegedly negotiated a Policy and Program on Substances of Abuse with the NFLPA (the "Policy"). A true and accurate copy of the current Policy the NFLMC alleges it negotiated with the NFLPA is attached as Exhibit A.

14. The Policy is a collectively bargained agreement.

15. Pennel is a member of the NFLPA.

16. Section 1.5 of this Policy grants authority to discipline Players for violations of the Policy.

17. The NFLMC is attempting to impose discipline upon Pennel under the Policy.

18. Section 4 of this Policy grants players the right to appeal the NFLMC's disciplinary decisions to arbitration.

19. Section 4.1 of the Policy provides a specific method for the naming and appointing of arbitrators to hear appeals, which states, in relevant part, as follows:

The Parties shall jointly select and be equally responsible for compensating no fewer than three but no more than five arbitrators to act as hearing officers for appeals under Section 1.5 of this Policy. Such arbitrators shall have appropriate expertise in matters under this Policy and shall be active members in good standing of a state bar.

Exhibit A at p. 22 (emphasis added).

20. Section 4.1 of the Policy does not name specific arbitrators but states that there shall be no fewer than three and no more than five arbitrators designated to hear appeals under the Policy.

21. Per the express terms of this Policy, arbitrators are assigned to hear specific Section 1.5 appeals as follows, in relevant part:

The selected group of arbitrators shall designate one of its members to be the Notice Arbitrator, who also will be responsible for assignment of the appeals. Prior to the first preseason game, the Notice Arbitrator will ensure that at least one arbitrator is assigned to cover every Tuesday of the playing season through the Super Bowl. Appeals will automatically be assigned to the arbitrator assigned to cover the fourth Tuesday following the date on which the Player is notified of discipline.

Exhibit A at pp. 22-23.

22. By a letter dated November 8, 2016, Adolpho A. Birch III, Senior Vice President of Labor Policy & League Affairs for the NFL, notified Pennel that he faced discipline for an alleged Policy violation, including his right to appeal under the Policy.

23. On November 11, 2016, under Section 4.2 of the Policy, Pennel timely appealed to arbitration the pending discipline referenced in Adolpho Birch III's November 8, 2016.

24. Pennel's appeal is scheduled to take place on December 6, 2016.

25. On November 23, 2016, counsel for the NFLMC notified Pennel via email to his counsel that, contrary to the express terms of Section 4 of the Policy, there are only two arbitrators available for assignment to hear appeals under the Policy. A true and accurate copy of this email is attached as Exhibit B.

26. Upon information and belief, there is no designated "Notice Arbitrator," despite the Policy requiring one.

28. Upon information and belief, Defendants did not follow the agreed-to method for naming and appointing arbitrators to hear Pennel's appeal to arbitration under the Policy.

29. The failure to appoint an arbitrator in accordance with the collectively bargained Policy denies Pennel substantive rights that will cause him irreparable harm, injury, and damage.

30. The injury and damage to Pennel includes, but is not limited to, substantial reputational damages, the shortening of his career, and the inability to find like work for which money damages will not adequately compensate him.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

(Motion under the FAA, 9 U.S.C. § 5, to Designate and Appoint Arbitrator)

31. Pennel incorporates by reference the averments of the proceeding paragraphs, as if fully restated herein.

32. Section 5 of the FAA provides that:

If in the agreement provision be made for a method of naming or appointing an arbitrator or arbitrators or an umpire, such method shall be followed; but if no method be provided therein, or if a method be provided and any party thereto shall fail to avail himself of such method, or if for any other reason there shall be a lapse in the naming of an arbitrator or arbitrators or umpire, or in filling a vacancy, then upon the application of either party to the controversy the court shall designate and appoint an arbitrator or arbitrators or umpire, as the case may require, who shall act under the said agreement with the same force and effect as if he or they had been specifically named therein; and unless otherwise provided in the agreement the arbitration shall be by a single arbitrator.

33. Section 4.1 of the Policy requires that there be no fewer than three arbitrators to as act as hearing officers for appeals under Section 1.5 of the Policy.

37. Upon information and belief, as of the date of this filing, there is no Notice Arbitrator as required by the express written terms of the Policy.

41. Under Section 5 of the FAA, failure to abide by the Policy's procedure for naming an arbitrator to hear Pennel's appeal authorizes this Court to name an arbitrator to hear Pennel's appeal.

42. Pennel is entitled to a temporary restraining order, preliminary injunctive relief, and permanent injunctive relief enjoining and restraining Defendants from proceeding with his appeal hearing scheduled for December 6, 2016, including all pre-hearing submissions and activities.
